

General Information

Salt Lake County government is headquartered in the County Government Center, 2001 South State Street in Salt Lake City. The general telephone number for the County Offices is 468-3000. Further information may be located on the internet at the Salt Lake County website: www.slco.org.

Tours: Salt Lake County offers hour long tours twice a month visiting offices at the Government Center including the Mayor's office. The tour is geared towards augmenting 4th grade curriculum on local government. Tours of the county's extensive art collection are also available by request. Tours can be scheduled by contacting the Office of Volunteer Program Services at 468-2185.

Salt Lake County Government is a political subdivision of the State of Utah. It provides all residents of the county with countywide services including:

Mental Health:	Treatment, counseling, long-term care
Aging Services:	Meals on Wheels, assistance programs, senior centers
Youth Services:	Intervention, counseling
Criminal Justice:	Pre trial screening, referrals
Public Health:	Family programs, environmental programs
Substance Abuse:	Prevention, intervention, and treatment
Flood Control:	Facilities and storm water pollution prevention
Parks/Recreation:	Maintains parks and golf courses, operates recreation programs
Library Services:	Maintains 18 branches except Murray and Salt Lake City libraries and serves 35% of the Utah's entire population
Solid Waste:	Disposes of residential, commercial & industrial waste generated within Salt Lake County
Animal Services:	Pet licensing, education, adoption for Salt Lake City, unincorporated Salt Lake County and Taylorsville
Jail Services:	Operates a 2,000 capacity maximum-security jail & the Adult Detention Center
Fine Arts/Sciences:	Abravanel Hall, Capitol Theater, Rose Wagner Performing Arts Center and Hansen Planetarium, Art Tix, a fine art collection and the ZAP tax

Landmarks in Salt Lake County:

Bingham Canyon Mine
The Mormon Trail
Utah State Capitol Building
Temple Square
Jordan Valley Water Conservancy District
Gardens

Abravanel Hall
Capitol Theatre
Salt Lake City and County Building
Great Salt Lake
Alta Ski Resort

Revised March 3, 2008

Wasatch Mountains
University of Utah
Salt Palace Convention Center
Olympic Oval